

Holding On Until The End!

Written by Christi Washington

Here we are in the last part of 2024. To be honest, I feel like its been a rollercoaster. I had to depend on God even in the times that I questioned Him. So much has happened in many of our lives.

Some of us have experienced shifts publicly, us on an emotional rollercoaster that it almost felt like the

So let's not allow ourselves to get fatigued doing good. At the right time we will harvest a good crop if we don't give up, or quit. Right now, therefore, every time we get the chance, let us work for the benefit of all, starting with the people closest to us in the community of faith.

personally, and privately, and a lot of those shifts have put sense of sanity was getting lost. At many points, I just wanted to quit. But even in those times, all I could do was call on God and seek His wisdom, and believe me, we've had some serious talks. Constantly calling on Jesus to comfort me and give me peace because He's the best man and friend I know. However, there is still a blessing. There are still testimonies through it all. I said yes to many things that I sensed I had

Thanksgiving

By: Renee Allen

Thanksgiving can be described as a great celebration for divine Goodness, giving God praise, sacrifice of praise or Todah. Todah in Hebrew means an extension of of the hand, adoration.

David's life was marked by a constant need for God's guidance and protection, as well as a deep longing to honor God publicly despite opposition. Psalm 26 captures his heart for righteousness, faithfulness, and public worship during a time of trial. David was a to do and there are at times I felt regretful. But now all I can do is just stay in the race and see what the ending will be. In due season, you and I will see the goodness of the Lord, while we live. Every battle, every emotion, every challenge will turn in our favor. No more losers here! We are winners only!
